

Christchurch

£900,000

This property has undergone a meticulous and sympathetic renovation and extension in recent years, showcasing high-quality fixtures, fittings, and charming period features throughout. It has emerged as one of the distinguished properties within the area. This captivating three-bedroom character residence, originally dating back to 1886, stands conveniently within walking distance of local amenities and close proximity to the Coast, nature reserves, and a mainline train station. Nestled within expansive and private gardens, the residence features additional outbuildings and a sweeping driveway that offers ample off-road parking.

