This detached, stone built farmhouse, believed to date back to the late 18th Century, has been greatly and sympathetically restored and extended over recent years. Set behind an attractive stone wall, the property benefits from having a fully enclosed south-facing rear garden. Offering superb ground floor accommodation, including four reception rooms, with the lounge and dining rooms featuring exposed stone walls, there is also a garden room with lantern window and a 20' kitchen/breakfast room. To the first floor there are four bedrooms, with the master having an en-suite. With a driveway providing plenty of parking, leading to an oversized garage, viewing of this unique character home is highly advised.
