

Green Pastures Road
Wraxall

This superb detached family home is located on the enduringly popular 'Elms' development in Wraxall, near the entrance, and close to parkland. The popular and well balanced 'Earlsford' design is rarely available as they are few in number, so be sure to view this delightful home sooner rather than later. Sitting in a landscaped corner plot garden, this well presented property is well placed for access to Nailsea, schools, transport links and charming open countryside. Bristol's City centre can also be accessed by a number a busses which run hourly from Nailsea and Wraxall. Conveniently, Backwell train Station is within 2 miles of the property giving access to, Bristol Temple Meads, Filton - Abbeywood and beyond to Bath and London/Paddington.
