Description

An absolute gem of a character cottage which has been sympathetically refurbished from top to bottom, combining period features with modern comforts, creating a perfect home for anyone wanting to move-in and unpack. The tasteful contemporary colour palette complements the flagstone flooring, beams, thick walls, and deep window recesses. Some of the appeal of this cottage is that it maintains its charm and country cottage feel whilst benefitting from well-proportioned light rooms.

The open-plan kitchen/dining room spans the rear of the property with French doors opening out to a garden terrace. The kitchen is fitted with an attractive range of wall and base units with warm wooden work surfaces and flooring. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, induction hob, dishwasher, and Belfast sink. There is further space for appliances and storage in the utility, next to the WC and back door. Flagstones run through the hallway, where there is space for seating or study area, and throughout the sitting room which easily accommodates sofas, chairs and other furniture, and benefits from a feature fireplace with log burning stove. The three bedrooms are upstairs, each with its own unique character and charm. The primary bedroom is a generous sized double bedroom with beamed and vaulted ceiling, and it enjoys the morning sun. Bedroom two looks over the rear garden with countryside views beyond, whilst bedroom three is at the front of the cottage and, like the primary bedroom, has lovely beams and vaulted ceiling. All three bedrooms share a modern family bathroom with a separate bath and shower cubicle.

Outside

The private, fenced rear garden stretches out behind the cottage, with paved patio across the back of the property, a shingle parking area, and a pathway leading across the level lawn to a gate giving access to a single garage and further parking. The property owns the driveway to the side of the cottage over which the neighbours have right of way to access their parking area.
