Description

This imposing family home is being brought to the market for the first time since its construction over 70 years ago. The property features vast landscaped gardens, a substantial garage with workshop and extensive westerly views. The accommodation does require modernisation but is of good proportions and comprises two reception rooms, a galley style kitchen, ground floor WC and a useful utility area on the ground floor. Four bedrooms and the family bathroom are located on the first floor. There is off road parking, extensive landscaped gardens and an adjoining substantial garage/workshop providing conversion or extension for enhanced accommodation.
