Ashley House, Churchtown, Illogan,
Redruth, Cornwall TR16 4SW

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

An opportunity to purchase this lovely double fronted period home situated within the sought after area of Churchtown, Illogan. The property has been the subject to updating and improvement within recent times, the property now provides spacious family sized accommodation with that all important character feel.

Internally you enter through a centrally located entrance hallway, this providing access to a rear hallway, the living room and also to the dining room/family room. The spacious full depth living room has windows to both the front and rear along with a focal point wood burning stove, this being set on a slate hearth with exposed granite surrounds. The generously proportioned dining room/family room is once more a dual aspect room. This room featuring a focal point wood burning stove set on a slate hearth with granite lintel, this room being spacious enough for both a family dining table and sofa. The light and airy kitchen breakfast room has been upgraded with a range of modern units with granite working surfaces, it also has the lovely addition of French doors that open directly onto the main garden. The further ground floor accommodation includes a utility room and a ground floor cloakroom/W.C.

The first floor continues with the spacious period feel. There is a generous landing area with a double glazed window to the rear, three bedrooms, two of which are good sized double rooms plus a very spacious main bathroom.

Externally there are walled gardens to the side and rear with views to the rear towards St Illogan Church. These gardens enjoy a great deal of privacy whilst also enjoying a good degree of the days sunshine.

A most unusual opportunity. A viewing is very highly advised.
