LOCATION

The popular village of Gosforth is situated within the Lake District National Park, a short distance from the coast and beaches of Seascale and gateway to the beautiful valleys of Wasdale and Eskdale. Gosforth has a good range of amenities including shops, restaurants and a primary school, and is conveniently placed for commuting to the major local employment centres of the area. Seascale is some 2 miles away with an excellent range of amenities including school, GP and pharmacy and the fantastic advantage of a railway station on the Cumbrian coastal line which connects with the west coast main line.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A truly fascinating Grade II listed barn conversion occupying a delightful, secluded position close to the centre of the Lakeland village of Gosforth in the National Park, complete with 2 adjoining holiday cottages and extensive manicured grounds, stunning outdoor kitchen, summerhouse and 2 nature ponds.

The Barn and lodges present a truly unique opportunity for the right purchaser to live in this beautiful setting, with a long term rental agreed on one of the adjoining properties, Pine Lodge, giving a regular additional income. Ash Lodge, the middle of the 3 barns and currently utilised by the present owners as a holiday cottage, interconnects with the main Barn which could appeal to buyers looking to move with dependent relatives, allowing 2 or 3 generations of the same family to live comfortably alongside each other.

The Barn, has been lovingly restored and maintained by the present owners to create a stunning family home with a perfect blend of contemporary styling and character retained from the original barns. The accommodation, which is configured in an reverse style arrangement, briefly comprises entrance, hallway, impressive principal suite with private bathroom, further double bedroom and family bathroom to the ground floor. The main living accommodation spans the entire first floor with beautiful apex beams, inglenook fireplace with multifuel stove and contemporary kitchen with access on to a private balcony. Stairs from the main living area lead on to an attractive mezzanine level perfect for use as a bedroom, snug or home office. The external space is perhaps the property's biggest surprise, with a parking area to the front for multiple vehicles, the property also boasts a recently completed outdoor kitchen with dining area and balcony above. There is a large byre spanning the full length of the barn leading from the main entrance, providing an excellent storage space and scope for a variety of uses. This also houses the biomass boiler. The gardens extend to the side of the barns and have been beautifully landscaped with large sections of lawn, several seating areas including a delightful timber summerhouse and 2 nature ponds.

Pine Lodge and Ash Lodge both offer 2 bed accommodation in slightly different configurations, both in very good condition and having allocated parking available to the front.

It is rare to encounter a property of this nature within the National Park and rarer still to see one introduced to the open market. Viewing is essential in order to fully appreciate the opportunities offered by this quite simply stunning property.
