The Property

This characterful five bedroom home combines the charm of original cob construction with traditional brick-built elevations and offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout.

Features include a welcoming entrance hall with standalone wood-burning stove and a cloakroom/WC, a delightful open-plan farmhouse-style kitchen with Belfast sink, integrated appliances including double ovens with gas hob over, dishwasher and full height fridge freezer and a clearly defined dining area with built-in cupboards and double doors opening onto the terrace.

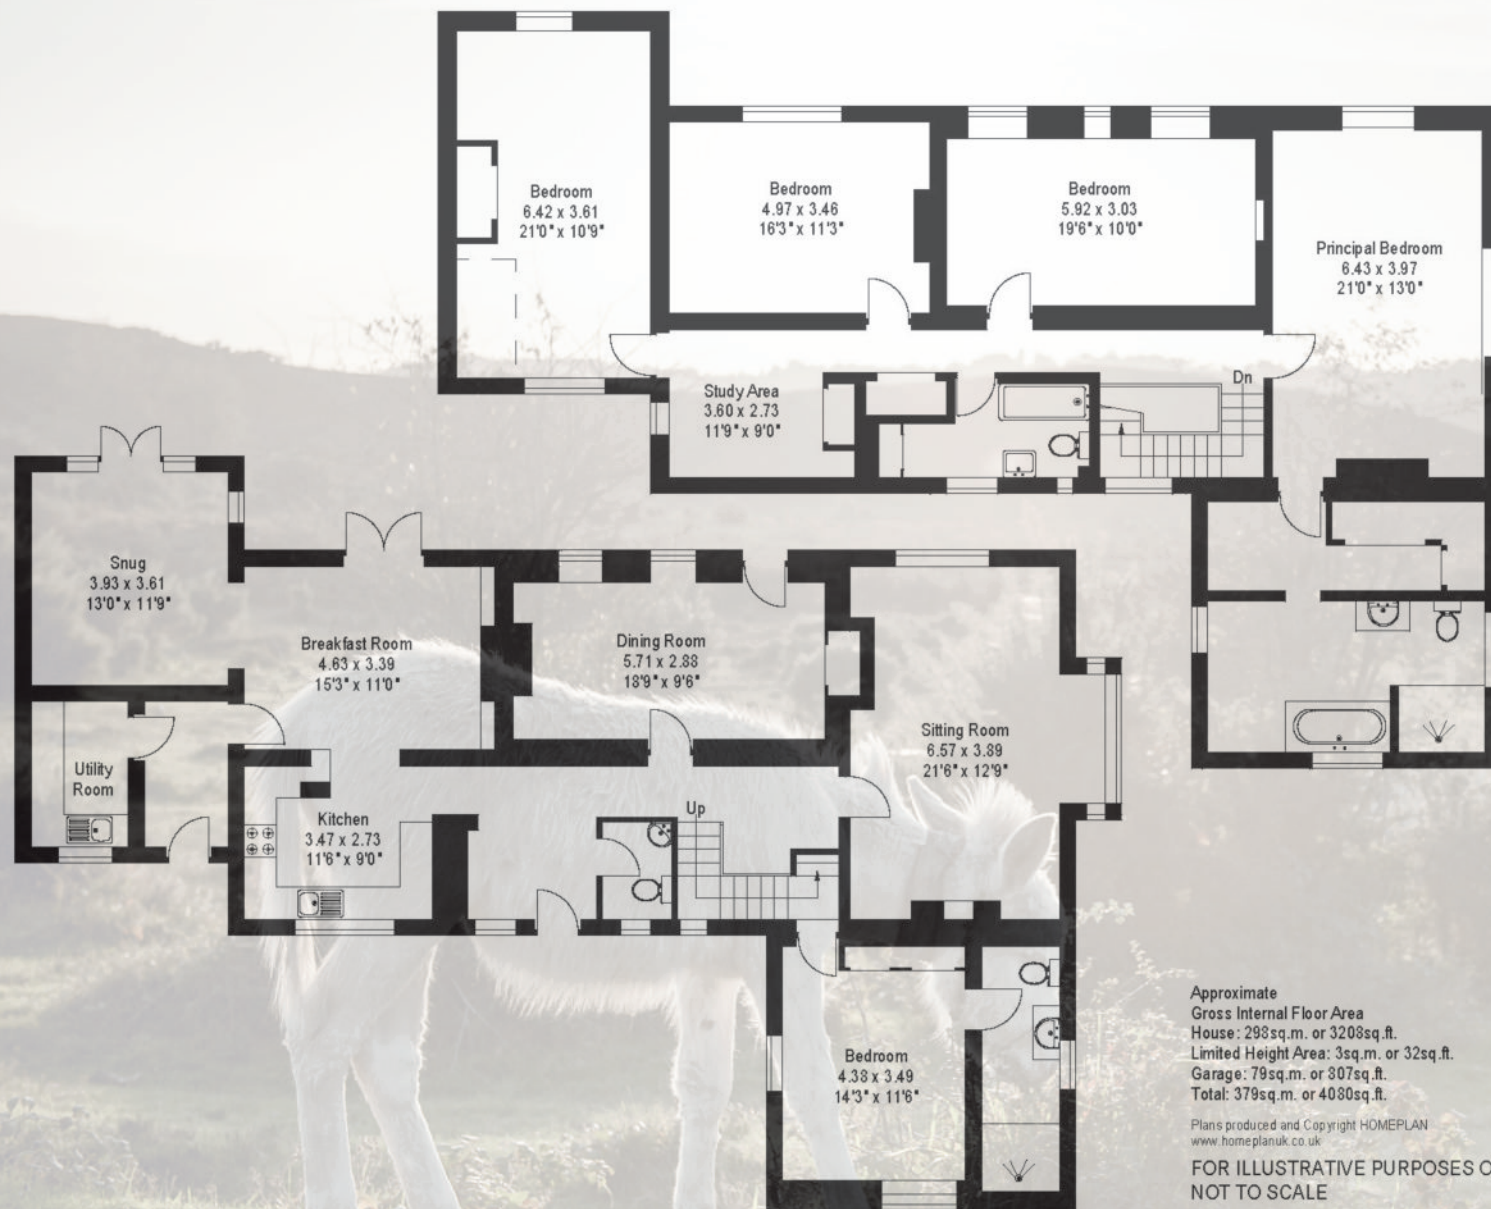

Additional ground floor rooms include a dual-aspect snug, a boot room, and separate utility room.

Forming part of the original cottage, the formal dining room, centred around a feature fireplace, opens into a bright and spacious dual-aspect sitting room with a charming box bay window and a further open fireplace. A ground-floor guest suite offers a dual-aspect double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and a stylish Fired Earth en suite wet room.

Upstairs, the landing provides space for a home office area and gives access to three double bedrooms enjoying delightful garden views, all served by a family bathroom.

The impressive principal suite features a dual-aspect bedroom, a walk-through dressing room, and a vibrant Fired Earth en suite bathroom.
