The Property

A storm porch entrance takes you into the main front hall which gives access to the downstairs accommodation, ground floor W/C and stairs leading to the first floor. Immediately to the left as you enter, double doors lead you into a large double aspect sitting room with brick-built fireplace housing an inset log burner and sliding doors onto a useful conservatory. A dining room sits at the back of the house with access from the hallway. Across the hall from the dining room is access into the kitchen which provides both base and eye level units with a peninsular island breakfast bar and integrated appliances. A large utility room sits from the kitchen giving further storage and rear access to the property as well as an entrance into the study which has double aspect views over the gardens and driveway.

Stairs lead you to a spacious galleried landing where all bedroom accommodation can be found. Along the first floor landing, bedroom two is a good sized double and enjoys double aspect views. Bedroom three sits to the front of the property and has inbuilt wardrobes and views over the gardens. Bedroom four sits at the rear of the house with views over neighbouring fields. All these bedrooms are serviced by a three-piece bathroom. The large principle bedroom offers a host of in-built wardrobes, double aspect views and a lovely en suite shower room.

Grounds & Gardens

You enter the property through a five-bar wooden gate over a cattle grid onto a gravel driveway that leads you to the double garage and provides space for off street parking, for several cars. A pathway takes you to the front of the property where access to the house can be found. The house sits at the rear of the plot with a lovely garden to the front and side that is mostly laid to lawn and offers an array of shrubbs, small trees and a pond, creating a lovely outside area. The garden wraps around the house with a smaller area to the rear. A small holding paddock sits at the end of the plot with its own separate gated entrance out to the lane. The grounds are bordered by fencing and mature hedging and the property also benefits from two additional outbuildings.

The Situation

The property is centrally located in, arguably, one of the most beautiful and sought after villages in The New Forest, ideally situated to make full use of all the wonderful facilities the Forest has to offer. Whether it be sailing at nearby Lymington (12 miles) or golf at one of the many courses in the area including Brockenhurst with its mainline railway station (8 miles, Waterloo 90 mins.) The market town of Ringwood is but a short drive away (5 miles). The larger shopping towns of Southampton (20 miles) to the east and Bournemouth (16 miles) to the west, both with their airports, are easily accessible.

Directions

The Local Area

The first Spencers New Forest office was established here in Burley, a honeypot village that feels untouched by time with its traditional cafes, cider farm, gift shops and tales of old smuggling routes, witches and dragons. This is the New Forest on holiday as imagined by visitors: quaint and old-fashioned with ponies wandering down the high street. In Burley there's a perpetual feeling of having escaped, that you are away from it all, especially as it is tucked in the lee of wooded slopes. There's a lovely sense of community and a range of activities to enjoy locally including cycling, horse riding, coarse fishing and the Burley Golf Club with a nine-hole heathland course.
