2/ GIN HOUSE BARN, BURRELLS, APPLEBY

A stunningly presented, charming, terraced barn style residence situated in the tranquil rural hamlet of Burrells just outside the historic market town of Appleby. The property blends rustic period features with modern comforts which include a newly fitted kitchen. The home centres around a welcoming living space with a multi fuel stove, exposed beams and stonework that highlight its heritage. The double glazed and gas central heated accommodation includes a spacious master bedroom with an en-suite shower room alongside additional well-proportioned rooms that make it equally suited for family living or a countryside retreat. The thoughtful balance of traditional craftsmanship and contemporary finishes ensures that Gin House Barn offers both warmth and practicality in a rural setting. To the rear of the property there are beautifully maintained gardens that give stunning views of the countryside with ample off-road parking on the gated, private driveway that can easily fit two cars.
