Description

A Town Centre period home benefiting from a secluded courtyard and two separate reception rooms. The internal accommodation benefits from a sitting room with a front aspect, a second reception room with built in alcove storage which overlooks the secluded rear courtyard, and a kitchen with integrated oven and hob. There are two bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor. The larger front bedroom is of excellent proportions and overlooks St Margaret's Chapel. A secluded, walled courtyard garden is located at the rear. The attractive, low maintenance courtyard provides ample space for seating and includes a useful store with plumbing facilities.
