BELTON DUFFEY

ROSELEIGH, GARNERS ROW, BURNHAM THORPE, NORFOLK, PE31 8HR

A period brick and flint cottage with spacious accommodation, now requiring some modernisation, overlooking the River Burn in this sought after village. No chain.

DESCRIPTION

Roseleigh is situated in an enviable location within the sought after village of Burnham Thorpe, overlooking the picturesque River Burn, approached down a quiet lane with access to the property via a gravelled parking area for 2 vehicles and the enclosed rear garden.

The original cottage has been extended to provide spacious flexible accommodation that could be configured to suit differing requirements and does require a degree of modernisation but this is a rare opportunity to improve according to taste and preferred specification. Currently the accommodation comprises utility/boot room, garden room, kitchen, dining room, ground floor shower room, large sitting room with fireplace and 3 first floor bedrooms.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this charming property would make an ideal family second/holiday home or a characterful permanent residence.

SITUATION

Burnham Thorpe, perhaps most famous for being the birthplace of Lord Nelson, is a small rural village situated just one and a half miles from Burnham Market with its wide range of shops, eating establishments and amenities. Opposite the green in the village is a very old pub, originally called The Plough, but in 1798 it changed its name to The Lord Nelson in honour of Nelson's historic victory at The Battle of the Nile. The pub has recently been reopened following a comprehensive programme of refurbishment. Also close by is the coastal village of Burnham Overy Staithe which offers excellent sailing, wide sandy beaches and coastal walks.
