3 Bedroom Maisonette

£350,000 Leasehold

Satchells are delighted to present this Grade 2 1540's, well-presented three-bedroom split-level home is set within the popular Raban Court development in Baldock. Offered chain free, and is maintained in excellent condition throughout.

The property offers bright and spacious accommodation arranged over the two floors, giving a real sense of character and separation between living and sleeping areas. The living area is warm and welcoming, with a large original open fire feature, modern inset downlighting and well proportioned, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining, with the original timber beams adding character and uniqueness. The single galley kitchen is fitted to a good standard with integrated appliances.

Upstairs, there are 2 generous bedrooms and a third room suitable for an office, cot, or games room, and served by a modern family bathroom with a stand-alone bath feature and shower. The layout makes excellent use of space and provides flexibility for families, professionals, or those working from home.

The front door is also the original, stable door, giving the indication from the outset of this lovely distinctive property.

Located within easy reach of Baldock town centre, local amenities, schools, and transport links, this property represents an ideal purchase for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike looking for original period appeal. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the condition, layout, and convenient location on offer.
