

Uniquely located on a gated private driveway offering parking for at least 6 cars is this five bedroom detached house that has been expertly extended to create commodious living accommodation. The ground floor offers three reception rooms including two sitting lounges and a dining room with the addition of a 18ft conservatory. An 18ft kitchen overlooks the rear and offers a wide range of storage cupboards, gas cooker, and access to a downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor the master bedroom stretches 13ft to the front of the house and benefits from stylish en-suite shower room and large fitted wardrobes. There are four additional good size bedrooms, a large family bathroom and additional shower room. The rear garden is fully laid to shingle with patio and decking areas suitable for garden furniture, whilst the front of the house offers ample parking with the benefit of a detached garage. The property is offered to the market in superb condition and would ideally suit a large family.
