“Seamlessly blending timeless character with modern luxury”...

A beautifully presented duplex apartment within a prestigious Grade II listed building in the heart of Kingsbridge.

Arranged over two floors, the property opens with an arched hallway featuring high ceilings, original skirting boards, and architraves. To the right is a charming reception room with a feature fireplace and sash window. An original winding staircase with under-stairs storage leads to the principal landing, highlighted by a striking oval ceiling dome and chandelier.

The open-plan kitchen, living and dining room is the heart of the home. Bathed in natural light from double-aspect, westerly-facing sash windows. The kitchen is finished to a high standard with white quartz worktops, Karndean flooring, integrated units, and premium appliances including a fridge/freezer, oven, induction hob, microwave, dishwasher, and washing machine.

The main bedroom enjoys views of St. Edmund's Church, a cast iron fireplace, and a modern en-suite. Bedroom two offers easterly views and direct access to the family bathroom, which also serves bedroom three. The bathroom includes a bath with shower, vanity unit, heated towel rail, and underfloor heating.

Flat 4 is a luxury apartment set within one of Kingsbridge's most iconic and historic buildings, ideally positioned at the top of the high street for easy access to shops and amenities. With no lease restrictions, the apartment suits a primary residence, investment, or lock-up-and-leave. One allocated parking space is located directly behind the building, with access from Fore Street.
