Directions

Exit Ringwood along the A338 Ringwood to Fordingbridge road. After about two miles turn right signposted to Linwood. This road will take you over a cattle grid and you bear right over a humped back bridge and then you turn left. Take the next right before the ford and then continue along this road, which will take you to Linwood. Go through this small hamlet passing the Red Shoot and then down a hill and up again and then you bear left and continue along this road looking out for the signpost to the High Corner Inn. You will come to a lane which will take you down a hill passing the pub on your left and continue further along the track for approximately another 800 yards where the property can be found on the right.

The Situation

Nestled in the rural hamlet of Linwood, this property is positioned in the heart of the New Forest National Park. The elevated (High Corner) approach roads with far reaching views have a true sense of returning home to the 'Shires'. This exceptional location offers direct access to thousands of acres of natural heath and woodland, making it an ideal setting for enthusiasts of walking, cycling, and riding. Adding to the locale's charm is the proximity to the popular 'High Corner Inn', offering fine dining and accommodation. Within walking distance is the 'Red Shoot Inn', famed for its own brewery and within riding distance is "the Royal Oak" at Fritham, which remains totally original.

Grounds & Gardens

The picture-perfect grounds are truly sensational, featuring approximately 4 acres of stunning landscape gardens and including a pond with island, as well as workshops and sheds. This wonderful setting is amplified by the adjoining open forest, providing an idyllic retreat. The property benefits from commoners rights.

The driveway can accommodate several vehicles and a recently constructed double timber framed work-shop/garage with a first floor home office/gym/hobby room with velux window and storage is also conveyed.
