General Information

25 Main Street is well positioned to the centre of Tweedmouth just across the Old Bridge from Berwick-upon-Tweed town centre near the Harbour. The port can currently take vessels up to 90 meters in length with maximum beam height of 16 meters and draughts of up to 4.5 meters. The town has recently started to Welcome passenger cruise ships with the first Island Sky dropping anchor off Spittal Beach on 21 July 2021 and the Spirit of Discovery on 22 July 2021

Berwick-upon-Tweed is situated in Northumberland approximately equi-distance between Edinburgh to the north and Newcastle-upon-Tyne to the south (sixty-five miles each way). Whilst a relatively small town with a population of approximately 14,000 it is an important local centre serving a wide rural hinterland in North Northumberland and the eastern Scottish Borders with an approximate catchment area of around 42,000. The town benefits from a significant tourism sector with the population reported to approximately double during peak summer season.

Although a small town, Berwick offers a good range of retail and recreational facilities with a £20 million investment ongoing to renew The Swan Fitness and Wellness Centre a short distance west of this site. The population within a ten-mile radius was recorded as 27,323 in 2019 (Source: Costar).

It is served by both the A1 trunk road and the main line East Coast Railway Network providing regular access to Edinburgh and Newcastle-upon-Tyne (approximately forty-five minutes each way) and London (approximately three and a half hours each way).

There are airports at both Edinburgh and Newcastle-upon-Tyne providing domestic and international scheduled flights.
