THE PROPERTY

Superb, larger than average, four bedroom house in the ever popular Lordswood area with a 0.19 Acre plot size. If you are looking for a family home that has versatility of space with an outbuilding/lodge with its own kitchenette that can provide home office working or extra space for entertaining, then this would be the perfect property.

Sitting back from the road, the large pavia driveway leads to the double garage, so ample parking for multiple vehicles. A few steps lead to the welcoming front entrance.

On entering you are greeted by a galleried entrance vestibule which gives an impressive introduction to the substantial living accommodation. Off of the hallway is a downstairs cloakroom and double doors lead to a dining room of approximately 20ft. The lounge has a brick built feature fireplace with patio doors to the garden. The kitchen is well appointed with space for a range cooker, granite work surfaces and a door to the handy utility room. An archway leads from the kitchen to a family/breakfast room with bi-fold doors to the pitch roofed conservatory, a beautiful space overlooking the garden.

On the first floor is a galleried landing with view to the front. The four bedrooms are of a double size with the principal bedroom having a larger than average ensuite with double shower cubicle and bidet. The main bathroom has a corner bath and shower cubicle.

The rear garden has a well maintained lawn with established shrub borders and there are numerous patio areas in which to sit to enjoy different aspects of the expansive garden. There is also a hidden vegetable plot behind the lodge, ideal for the keen gardener. The timber built lodge benefits from mains water and sewerage system and electrics and has a kitchenette area and WC. Divided into two rooms, this space can provide multiple usage.

Must be viewed to appreciate the space available. An ideal family home with local amenities and schools to complete the picture.
