The Property

Upon entering the property through the front door, you are greeted by a spacious entrance hallway, which features a large cloak cupboard and stairs leading to the first floor. This hallway opens into a central area that provides access to all reception rooms, as well as the downstairs bedroom and family bathroom.

The generous living room boasts an exposed red brick corner fireplace with a log burner, and patio doors that overlook and open onto the west-facing rear garden, allowing for plenty of natural light. Adjacent to the living room, the galley kitchen is equipped with a range of matching wall-mounted and floor-standing units, providing space for kitchen appliances, and a back door leading to the rear garden.

On the ground floor, you'll find two double bedrooms, both overlooking the front of the property; one of these could easily serve as an additional reception room. The family bathroom features a bath, wash hand basin, and WC, and is fully tiled with two frosted UPVC double-glazed windows.

The Local Area

Highcliffe on Sea (or simply Highcliffe) sits on a high bluff above a beautiful stretch of sand and shingle beach. This small leafy coastal town, straddling the Dorset/Hampshire border, is best known for Highcliffe Castle, an ornate early Victorian mansion, once home to Mr Selfridge and now an events venue. Its grounds enjoy outstanding views across Christchurch Bay towards the Isle of Wight while footpaths head off to a wooded nature reserve or zig-zag down to the beach.

Highcliffe is ideal for those searching for a relaxed yet smart seaside lifestyle. A high street of useful independent shops includes a bakery, family butcher and gourmet grocery. Highcliffe also nurtures a foodie reputation with an annual food festival and tasty selection of cafes, gastropubs and restaurants. Leisure facilities include Highcliffe Castle Golf Club while the New Forest lies just to the north.

As Highcliffe developed post-war property is mostly mid-century character houses, coastal chalets and high-specification new builds. For families, schools are rated 'good' while local independents, including Durlston Court and Ballard, are judged 'excellent'. Mainline railway stations are found nearby at Hinton Admiral and New Milton with services to London Waterloo in two hours.
