

Pottery Lines, Sandford, Wareham.

- Substantial five-bedroom detached home set on a private lane
- Approximately ¼ acre plot with mature, secluded gardens
- Four bathrooms including two en-suites and ground floor shower room
- Versatile layout with potential for ground floor bedroom/living
- Direct walking access into Wareham Forest from the property
- Modernised kitchen with additional utility and porch improvements
- Retained 1930s character features including original tiled flooring and internal doors
- Extensive upgrades including new windows (2018) and full plumbing modernisation (2025)