

Oakwood Estates is delighted to present this versatile semi-detached property to the market. Featuring three to four bedrooms, two to three reception rooms, and two bathrooms, this home offers flexible living spaces to suit your needs. Conveniently located near local schools, shops, and parks, it provides easy access to essential amenities.

Upon entering the property through the entrance porchway, stairs rise to the first floor, and French doors lead to the living room. The living room boasts twin windows with front views, pendant lighting, space for multiple sofas, a door to the kitchen, an archway to the dining area, and carpeted flooring. The dining room includes French doors to the garden, pendant lighting, space for a dining table and chairs, and doors to the kitchen and the third reception room, which can serve as a fourth bedroom. The kitchen is equipped with a mix of wall-mounted and base units, a metro tile backsplash, a door and window to the garden, a stainless steel sink and drainer, space for utility appliances, a range-style oven, and an American fridge freezer, all set on tiled flooring. The third reception room/fourth bedroom features a front-facing window, space for a double bed or office furniture, and carpeted flooring. The fully tiled downstairs wet room includes a rear garden window, a hand wash basin, a low-level WC, and a shower area.

Upstairs, bedroom one offers space for a king-sized bed, a built-in wardrobe, a front-facing window, and carpeted flooring. Bedroom two features windows on two sides, space for a double bed, a wardrobe, and carpeted flooring. Bedroom three includes a front-facing window, space for a single bed, a built-in wardrobe, and carpeted flooring. The fully tiled bathroom features a frosted window, a low-level WC, a hand wash basin with a vanity unit, and a bath with a shower attachment.
