The first floor you have access to four generous bedrooms (three having impressive large vaulted ceilings). Two of the bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms with an additional family bathroom also on the first floor. The master bedroom benefits from fitted electric blinds and a walk in dressing room / bedroom four.

The Situation

The property is situated in the village of Hordle and epitomises the peace and tranquillity of the New Forest. Hordle, is a semi-rural village between Lymington, a popular market town famed for its river and marinas and New Milton which offers comprehensive leisure and shopping facilities with excellent schools nearby. To the north east is the New Forest village of Brockenhurst which has a mainline railway station providing a half hourly service to London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 90 minutes.

The property benefits from ample parking for numerous cars.

Grounds & Gardens

Externally the gardens, designed for ease of maintenance are laid to lawn with a fine garden to the rear having a private sunny southerly aspect the garden featuring a small brook. The garden further benefits from an electric awning which provides shade to the large patio area. At the rear of the garden is a detached outbuilding, which would be ideal for home working or use as a summerhouse. To the front is a large expanse of paviour driveway and parking and adjacent gravel parking area, gateway leading to the side of the property to the rear garden.

Directions

From Lymington, continue west on the A337 in the direction of New Milton. On passing the turning on the left signifying the coastal village of Milford on Sea, take the next turning on the right into Everton Road. Continue along Everton Road, in the direction of Hordle, where the property will be on the left hand side just before the turning into Sky End Lane.

Both Lymington and Brockenhurst afford fine schooling (both state and private) with the latter having a tertiary college.
