Description

Set in a semi-rural location yet within walking distance of the centre of the village, this detached three bedroom family home is available on the market for the first time since 1955 and now requires general modernisation. The property sits within a large level plot with attractive views from the first floor and has the advantage of a detached three bedroom park home with oil central heating and a substantial double bay commercial barn with attached workshop, that has previously benefitted from an operators licence for two heavy goods vehicles. The site is considered to be a wonderful opportunity for those looking for a house with ancillary accommodation and the benefit of a commercial use in a village location. It is also considered that the site, as a whole, could offer planning potential for residential development, in place of the commercial barn and park home, subject to any necessary consent.

The house requires general modernisation but the park home is well presented with three bedrooms and a large open plan living/dining room. Viewing is highly recommended.

Directions

From the centre of New Inn Public House in the centre of Westfield proceed along the A28 for a short distance turning left into Cottage Lane. Proceed along where the property will be found along on the left hand side after Mill Close.
