Ermin Street, Stockcross

DESCRIPTION

A charming and delightful period cottage originally built in 1850 and extended in the 1970's to provide an excellent spacious family home situated in this very well sought after village of Stockcross.

INTERNAL VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED - NO ONWARD CHAIN

The property has been very well maintained by its current owner and provides spacious accommodation throughout comprising:- large front porch, lounge with feature fireplace with electric fire, exposed floor timbers and French doors opening to a large fitted kitchen/dining room. Off the kitchen there is a rear porch with cloakroom and a second set of French doors leading to the conservatory with doors leading to a lovely garden. On the first floor there is a spacious landing leading to three double bedrooms and a good size family bathroom with roll top bath and a separate shower with top of the range Marlborough wall tiles.

To the outside front of the cottage there is a small garden with well stocked flower and shrub borders, all of which is enclosed by picket fencing with access through a gate to the front. There is also gated side access to the rear garden.

The rear garden is very pretty with a good sized patio leading to the lawn which has well stocked flower and shrub borders. The garden is fully enclosed offering a high degree of privacy. The pathway that leads up the garden brings you to two single garages which have substantial loft storage and a loft ladder. To the left of the neighbouring cottage there is a shared access driveway leading to the garages and an additional car parking space.
