The Local Area

Bursledon is a picturesque village situated on the River Hamble in Hampshire, renowned for its outstanding natural beauty. Located within the borough of Eastleigh and close to the city of Southampton, Bursledon has a railway station, marina, dockyards and the Bursledon Windmill. Nearby villages include Swanwick, Hamble, Netley and Sarisbury Green.

Old Bursledon is one of the Hamble's best-kept secrets. The River Hamble is an internationally-famed centre of yachting and motorboats, and boasts several marinas that offer extensive facilities for both residential and visiting yachtsmen. The village has close ties to the sea. The Elephant Boatyard located in Old Bursledon dates back centuries and is where some of Henry VIII's fleet was built. Submerged remnants of the fleet can be found in the River Hamble. The village, particularly the Jolly Sailor pub and the Elephant Boatyard, were used as the primary filming venue for the 1980s BBC TV soap opera Howards' Way.

Bursledon's waterside location and woodland surroundings made it a natural location for building wooden ships. Numerous vessels were built for the Royal Navy at private shipyards at Bursledon. By the 1870s, the shipbuilding trade had disappeared from Bursledon and the main industry was arable agriculture, particularly the growing of strawberries.

Locally, there are several pubs and restaurants to try, but if you'd like to stretch your legs a little more, you can take a stroll to the waterside villages that line the Hamble's route to the sea. Visit them by water taxi, or head upriver in a tender to Botley for some truly spectacular scenery.

The local church, St Leonard's in Old Bursledon traces its history back to the twelfth century. Local schools include Bursledon Infant and Junior Schools, The Hamble Secondary School is the catchment school for students aged 11-16.

The area has excellent transport links via a train station, and the M27 motorway that links the neighbouring cities of Southampton, Portsmouth, and Winchester. Nearby Southampton Airport Parkway train station it is an approximately a 1 hour 20 minutes ride to London Waterloo.

Ground Floor Accommodation

Upon stepping into the property, you are welcomed into an enclosed porch, with electric underfloor heating, offering space to de boot and hang your outdoor wear. A door opens into the living room, a well-proportioned space featuring an electric wall mounted fire, enhancing the cosy ambience, making this perfect for relaxing at the end of a busy day. There is a front elevation window, stairs rising to the first floor and an opening into the dining room.

The dining room flows into the kitchen and benefits from French doors opening onto the raised terrace. The shaker style kitchen comprises a range of matching wall and floor mounted units with a worksurface over. A 1½ bowl sink and drainer sit beneath a rear elevation window. Appliances include a Zanussi oven with induction hob and an extractor hood above and integrated Bosch dishwasher. There is appliance space for a washing machine and fridge/freezer.

First Floor Accommodation

Ascending to the first floor, the landing offers doors to all rooms, a storage cupboard and a loft hatch into the attic space. Bedroom one is a double room with a front elevation window and fitted wardrobe with sliding mirror fronted doors. Bedrooms two and three both present rear elevation windows offering views over the rear garden. The bathroom is principally tiled and comprises a panel enclosed bath with a shower over, wash hand basin and a WC.

Outside

The property is approached via a block paved driveway providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leading to the garage. A footpath leads to the entrance door. The front garden is largely laid to shingle with a variety of plants and shrubs. The garage, currently utilised as a workshop, benefits from an up and over door to the front aspect and a pedestrian door to the side. There is storage within the eaves, power and lighting.

The rear garden is predominantly enclosed by timber fencing with access to the driveway from the terrace. This lovely southerly aspect garden is largely laid to shingle with decorative planted borders containing an array of established plants and shrubs. A decked terrace, with an electronically operated awning, is accessed from the dining room providing an idyllic spot for outdoor entertaining and al fresco dining.
