Description

A fantastic opportunity to purchase this spacious, 1950s, semi detached, family house with an extended ground floor providing versatile accommodation, and situated in a popular location close to sought after schools, parks and excellent amenities. The light and airy living space includes a reception hall, living room with feature window enjoying views of Leckhampton Hill, additional family room which opens into the dining room with skylight and French doors to the rear garden. The impressive kitchen/breakfast room has an attractive range of matching units, built-in appliances, skylights, further additional French doors, and access to the utility room. On the first floor, there are 3 bedrooms, 2 doubles and 1 small bedroom/nursery/dressing room (originally the bathroom - measuring 6'10"x6'1"). The modern family bathroom is larger than usual as it was formally bedroom 3. There is a resin driveway providing off-road parking to the front of the property. The enclosed c.100ft rear garden has a raised deck, ideal for outdoor dining, with steps down to a well tended, shaped lawn. Cheltenham Borough Council - Tax Band D.

Situation

Situated towards Leckhampton Hill and glorious countryside walks, also close to the vibrant Bath Road with excellent shops, cafes and pubs. Nearby are some of Cheltenham's best schools including Naunton Park Primary, Leckhampton Primary and Leckhampton High School. Cheltenham is a vibrant Regency town, best known for its beautiful architecture, excellent shopping, and horse racing at the world famous Prestbury Park Racecourse. Cheltenham also plays host to the music, jazz, science, and literature festivals currently held in Imperial Gardens.
