DESCRIPTION

Brown and Cockerill Estate Agents are delighted to offer for sale this traditional 1900s three/four bedroom semi detached family home conveniently located within walking distance of Rugby town centre and railway station. The property is of standard brick built construction with a tiled roof.

Rugby town centre offers a wealth of shops and stores, public library, churches of several denominations, supermarkets and many restaurants, takeaway outlets and bars and there is excellent local schooling for all ages.

Rugby railway station operates a regular mainline intercity service to Birmingham New Street and London Euston in under an hour. There is also easy commuter access to the surrounding M1/M6/A5 and A14 road and motorway networks making the location ideal for those wishing to commute.

In brief, the accommodation is accessed from the side and comprises of an L-shaped entrance hall with a storage cupboard and stairs rising to the first floor landing, a lounge with a bay window to the front elevation (currently used as a bedroom), a kitchen, separate reception room with access to a second hallway and a utility room. There is a rear lobby off the hallway with a large storage cupboard (approx. 3' 6" x 3' 3") and has access to the ground floor cloakroom/w.c. and reception/bedroom.

To the first floor, the L-shaped landing has stairs rising to a loft room and has access to three well proportioned bedrooms with bedroom three having a useful storage cupboard. There is a separate w.c. and a family bathroom.

The property benefits from double glazing, gas fired central heating to radiators and all mains services are connected.

Externally, the extended accommodation has occupied the original external garden space.

Early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.

Gross Internal Area: approx. 181 m² (1948 ft²).
