This room has been tastefully redecorated, with new carpets underfoot and a calm, neutral colour palette that enhances the sense of space and comfort.

From the lounge, double doors and a further single door from the entrance hallway leads into the stunning kitchen, dining, and family living space—an expansive open-plan area is situated off the rear of the property that truly forms the heart of the home. The flooring throughout this area is luxury Karndean, laid seamlessly through the kitchen and into the Orangery extension, which features a warm roof with a central roof lantern that fills the room with natural light. Bi-fold doors open from here out into the rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.
