Description	Location
A fantastic opportunity to purchase this stunning Grade II listed character town house which is located in a prominent position in the heart of the popular market town of Faringdon. The property is just a stones throw away from the market place and amenities including shops, cafe's, restaurants, pubs and more. The property has been lovingly refurbished to an exacting standard throughout by the current owner and benefits from two reception rooms, three light and airy double bedrooms and sunny rear garden.	The historic market town of Faringdon, which dates back to the 12th Century, is located almost equidistant of Swindon and Oxford on the A420 which leads to the A34, M40 and M4. Mainline railway services to London run from Swindon, Oxford City, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. The town is served by the Stagecoach S6 bus which runs a regular ½ hourly service through much of the day to Swindon and Oxford and the villages en-route. The town itself has a thriving community and amenities such as the leisure centre, library, independent traders, doctors' surgery, two primary schools, and a secondary school. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England. A recent retail development includes a Waitrose and an Aldi supermarket, with further retail planned, in addition to the existing Tesco store.
Viewing Information
Outside there is an attractive and sunny rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn along with a paved patio area which is perfect for outside dining and entertaining. There are also well stocked flowed borders as well as two storage sheds.	By appointment only please.
Local Authority
The property is freehold and is connected to mains gas, electricity, water and drainage. There is a modern gas boiler which runs the central heating. This property must be viewed to be fully appreciated.	Vale of White Horse District Council.
