

An outstanding opportunity to purchase this larger than average two bedroom ground floor property that stretches almost 900 square ft. within a popular Langley development.

The property is offered to the market in immaculate condition throughout boasting spacious rooms, ample storage solutions and modern interior.

The apartment comprises an impressive 24ft living room that provides sufficient space for both living and dining furniture, and the added benefit of a large south-facing bay window. The kitchen features gas cooker and adequate space for kitchen appliances including dishwasher and a large fridge freezer.

Separate to the living areas, the left side of the property features family bathroom and two double bedrooms. The master expands over 19ft with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room.

Externally there is a private residents car park where the property owns one allocated bay, as well as having access to visitor bays.

The property is well located for access to Heathrow airport, multiple motorway links and several schools, including three nearby grammar schools being just a short bus ride away.
