Preliminary Details | 3 bedrooms, kitchen, 2 reception rooms | Detached double garage | Summer room | Wood burner in sitting room | 2 bathrooms | Lovely gardens

Description

You enter the property via a side entrance hallway off which is a light and airy summer room and down stairs shower room and then through, into the cottage style kitchen overlooking the rear garden. A dining room and larger sitting room with wood burner completes the ground floor. Stairs up from the kitchen to 2 good sized double rooms and a large single/small double. There is a family bathroom with shower attachment

A driveway to the side leads up to the private off-road parking and large double garage. The garden runs a long way back and is a series of "rooms" with well established planting, small trees and a raised vegetable bed.

Uffington has a range of facilities including village shop, pub, primary school, church, museum, village hall and a sports and social club with football, cricket and tennis facilities.
