Situated in the heart of Market Deeping town centre, this SIX bedroom, three storey, Grade II listed home is believed to date back to 1640 and has three reception rooms and a garage within the rear enclosed gardens. For many years this historic home was run as a tearoom, restaurant and B&B and is now being sold as a residential home, offering a wealth of character throughout, with its sash windows, lovely high ceilings, high skirting boards and exposed beams. With fully enclosed private westerly facing gardens, this impressive stone-built property, which has been well looked after by the present Vendors, offers surprisingly spacious, flexible accommodation.
