Summary

This three-bedroom semi-detached house benefits from connected living spaces for relaxation and dining, plus an enclosed south-facing garden and multi-car private parking. Now in need of upgrading and external landscaping, it offers superb potential to create a family home in one of Fife's most desirable country towns. Cupar offers good shopping, schooling, and direct rail links to Dundee and Edinburgh – all accessible by foot from the property's quiet residential location.

Extras: All fitted floor and window coverings and light fittings are included in the sale.
