GENERAL

An outstanding offering within this favoured coastal town.

The property offers 4 bed accommodation within the main dwelling being in excellent order and well presented.

Great care and attention has been provided to the maintenance of the property and multiple improvements to the original layout including the open plan kitchen and dining space to the rear, which links into the south facing patio.

The property benefits from off road parking facilities.

In addition to the main house is a 1 bed overflow accommodation which could be used as an annexe or an Airbnb (Subject to the necessary consents) and this recent conversion has been finished to the highest order with no expense spared. A great opportunity for income potential.

The property is Grade II Listed for Group Value only.
