£300,000 Offers over

This traditional end-terraced family home offers an outstanding opportunity for those willing to tackle the refurbishment required. With self-evident issues that need resolving including damp and structural work, the property offers enormous potential to create a lovely home in this highly desirable location. The property is opposite the popular Christchurch primary school and enjoys a perfect setting with the local church, and nearby Leomansley Woods - perfect for dog walking. Lichfield city centre amenities are also within easy reach where a broad choice of facilities are available. We would reinforce that this property is priced to reflect the considerable work required which may render attaining mortgage funding difficult and is perhaps best suited to a cash buyer.
