LOCATION

The placing of Station House on the open market provides Prospective Purchasers with an opportunity of acquiring an historic yet renovated former Station House providing a perfect country getaway which is located in an area of considerable desirability close to the Breconshire/Carmarthenshire borders and in an area of outstanding natural beauty. Sugarloaf Mountains also lies within close proximity.

Main amenities of the area are offered in the Market Town of Llandovery which is famous for its Llandovery College School and is located in the Towy Valley with Rhandirmwyn and Llyn Brienne Dam located some 6 miles to the North.

The Cardigan Bay Coastline and Carmarthen are both within a 25 minute drive with the M4 intersection at Pont Abraham/Crosshands within similar travelling distance.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Prepare to be impressed! Here lies a renovated former Station House being totally transformed by the current Owners and now provides contemporary and modern living accommodation. The property offers 2 (possibly 3) bedroomed accommodation with a stylish fitted kitchen and bathroom suites.

The side extension offers a breath taking living area with a glass wall that provides magical views over the surrounding countryside.

Externally it sits within a sizeable plot of approximately 0.3 of an acre being well fenced and laid mostly to level lawn with raised flower beds and various paths and patio areas.

The garage/workshop offers potential for home working, workshop space, storage, etc. It benefits from electric roller shutter doors and has easy access from the large gravelled driveway.

As you would expect, the property is positioned adjacent to the Cynghordy Train Station which serves the rural Community of Cynghordy, near Llandovery. The Station is on the Heart of Wales Line approximately 75 kilometres North East of Swansea.
