Description

Nestled within the picturesque village of Fairfield is this quaint three-bedroomed mews house, which forms as part of an exclusive development from Bryant Homes. Constructed in 2006, this elegant home flaunts a sophisticated design with beautiful features, whilst presenting opportunities for sublime modern living with ideal open-plan living space and twin window placements, allowing natural light to flow effortlessly throughout. Approaching the house presents a highly prestigious feel, with a grand gated entrance, enclosure to bow top railings and meticulous lawns with pruned shrubbery and an elegant Cyprus tree. The property briefly comprises a luminous open-plan living area with a kitchen, possessing an extensive range of integrated appliances, and plenty of dining space too, along with lovely French doors which open out onto the private, south facing patio garden. And ascending the staircase to the first-floor, you will find three well proportioned bedrooms, with a sleek, three-piece tiled bathroom. Residing in this home grants exclusive access to the luscious communal garden, inspired by some of Italy's beautiful courtyard gardens, these grounds have been manicured meticulously, and are maintained with great care through the residents company. This exquisite garden presents a wonderful retreat for solitude, with gentle sounds of the trickling water fountain, thoughtful seating arrangements and lovely Pleached Hornbeams which surround the pathway. The property's additional benefits include allocated off-road parking for two cars and being just a stone's throw away from the Bannatyne Health Club & Spa and wonderful parkland trails.

Location

An abundance of manicured greenspaces surround the homes on this unique development, and are consistently maintained through the resident's company to achieve continuity and a flourishing appearance. Originally known as Fairfield Park, Fairfield is a village and civil parish located on the border of Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire, renowned for its vast parklands and breath-taking nature, with amazing trails around the Blue Lagoon and Green Lagoon, period inspired homes and tranquil lifestyle. The village offers a wealth of amenities and luxury facilities such as a Tesco Express, Bannatyne Health Club & Spa, Eden Hair & Beauty Salon, The Pavilion Café, The Blue Lagoon Angling club and Sailing Club, Fairfield Cricket & Bowls Club and Fairfield Community Hall, which provides the perfect hub for community meetings, hosting events and clubs. There is also an outstanding lower school in the village, along with other highly rated schools in proximity, in addition to a variety of secure children's play parks. The village is also centrally located for easy access to the major road links such as the A1 and M1 motorways for heading into London and Cambridge, as well as Bedford and Milton Keynes, with the nearest trainline being Arlesey Railway Station, which provides regular commutes to London Kings Cross circa 30-40 minutes.
