£425,000 Freehold
NO CHAIN - ORIO

A superb opportunity to secure this substantially extended detached three bedroom family home with no onward chain, commanding a dominant position on a fantastic larger than normal corner plot at the head of this ever sought after church farm cul-de-sac location. This property is ready to go as a charming family home but also offers an abundance of future potential (subject to necessary planning permission). Offering easy access to excellent local schools along with superb amenities including local doctors, public transport links and all the shopping and lifestyle options at the popular Swan Island. The property benefits from owned solar panels which give a small income along side reduced utility bills for the remaining term to benefit the new owner, the widening plot allows a superb landscaped rear garden along with a good size front garden and still having off road parking for four vehicles before the garage. The accommodation comprises in brief; entrance hall, guest w/c, dining room, lounge, breakfast room and fitted kitchen to the ground floor along with three good sized bedrooms with the master having fitted wardrobes to two walls and the family shower room. Call us today to make sure you don't miss this opportunity.
