A well-presented four-bedroom detached chalet bungalow, set within delightful, private south-facing gardens framed by a charming, wooded backdrop

The Property

A bright and spacious entrance hallway offers a welcoming introduction to the home, with views through the living room's casement doors leading out to the garden.

The ground floor features two double bedrooms, one of which includes built-in wardrobes and a bay window that overlooks the front gardens.

The bedrooms are served by a modern three-piece shower room, featuring a spacious walk-in shower, a sleek white gloss concealed WC unit, and a hand wash basin, all complemented by stylish feature wall tiles.

To the rear of the property, forming the heart of the home, is an impressive triple-aspect living/dining room. A large feature bay window with full-height, floor-to-ceiling glazing offers expansive views of the surrounding areas. The room also includes a log burner, adding a charming focal point, and French doors that open directly onto the patio.

Adjacent is a well-proportioned kitchen, featuring a good range of white gloss wall, base, and drawer units, complemented by quality stonework surfaces. The kitchen is equipped with an integrated single oven, a four-ring gas hob, and an extractor fan above.

The Local Area

Highcliffe on Sea (or simply Highcliffe) sits on a high bluff above a beautiful stretch of sand and shingle beach. This small leafy coastal town, straddling the Dorset/Hampshire border, is best known for Highcliffe Castle, an ornate early Victorian mansion, once home to Mr Selfridge and now an events venue. Its grounds enjoy outstanding views across Christchurch Bay towards the Isle of Wight while footpaths head off to a wooded nature reserve or zig-zag down to the beach.

Highcliffe is ideal for those searching for a relaxed yet smart seaside lifestyle. A high street of useful independent shops includes a bakery and gourmet grocery. Highcliffe also nurtures a foodie reputation with an annual food festival and tasty selection of cafes, gastropubs and restaurants.

Leisure facilities include Highcliffe Castle Golf Club while the New Forest lies just to the north.
