Gamlingay

Gamlingay is a popular, historic village located on the Cambridgeshire/Bedfordshire border. The village is charming and rich with its mix of character and history, and contains a wealth of shops, eateries and amenities for its residents. Shops include the local convenience store, pharmacy, Co-op store on Church St and Woodview Farm Shop on Potton Rd, which also includes its very own café. Eateries include a variety of public houses, Indian and Chinese takeaways and even a local sandwich bar with a linked Brasserie & wine bar. There is also a wealth of service business within the village, including hairdressers and barber shops and a mixture of garages, all of which offer their own specific trades suitable for motor vehicles. The village contains its own library, primary school and a mixture of clubs & societies as well.

Gamlingay is in the catchment area for Comberton Village College, which is rated 'Outstanding' by Ofsted, and is within proximity to a variety of local market towns such as Potton, Sandy, Biggleswade and St Neots, all of which contain a wealth of shops, eateries, amenities and transport links. The nearest trainline is in Sandy, which can be reached in approximately 12 minutes by car and provides regular journeys to London St Pancras in approximately 45 minutes. The A1(M) is also within easy reach from either Biggleswade or Sandy and the city of Cambridge can be reached in approximately 32 minutes by car via the A603.
