“A deceptively spacious three bedroom detached bungalow with two bathrooms, only 1 mile from Ferndown’s town centre”

This distinctive modern red brick detached bungalow comes to the market with no forward chain, set within well-proportioned front and rear gardens in a prime location only 1 mile from Ferndown town centre, with access to a local convenience store and regular bus routes to Wimborne and Ringwood.

The accommodation comprises three double bedrooms served by an en-suite shower room and family bathroom, a spacious dual aspect lounge with sliding doors to the front elevated patio and an L-shaped modern fitted kitchen and convenient dining area.

Other benefits include a spacious hallway, separate utility room, gas central heating and modern boiler (approx. 4 years old) double glazing and impressive single garage. The driveway provides parking for several vehicles and a convenient turning space, whilst the rear garden is exceptionally private with various patio areas and landscaped borders.
