

Oakwood Estates are delighted to present this semi-detached property, offering substantial scope for extension, refurbishment, and modernization (subject to the usual planning consents). Although the home is in need of updating, it represents a rare and exciting opportunity for purchasers seeking to create a bespoke family residence or an attractive investment.

The property is ideally situated within close proximity to the heart of Iver Village, providing convenient access to local amenities, schools, and transport links. To the rear, the generous garden enjoys open views backing directly onto farmland, delivering a peaceful rural outlook and a wonderful sense of privacy rarely found in such a well-connected location.

With its enviable position, generous plot, and vast potential for enhancement, this property offers the foundations for a truly exceptional home.
