Morden House

Sopley • Christchurch

Set within the historic Sopley Estate, this exquisite Edwardian residence has been meticulously restored, combining period elegance with modern comfort. Originally built in the early 20th century by Mr Hubert Kemp Welch, the home was later passed to his nephew, Sir Simon Benton Jones, in 1963. Today, it stands as a testament to fine craftsmanship, having undergone a full-scale renovation to preserve its historic charm while integrating contemporary upgrades.
