Description

A significantly improved four bedroom home offering extensive South Westerly views across open countryside. The property features a large rear garden and a recent loft conversion. The accommodation is beautifully presented and comprises a large dual aspect lounge/diner and a kitchen on the ground floor. The lounge/diner features French doors providing garden access with additional side access found in the kitchen. There are three bedrooms and a modern bathroom on the first floor. Following a recent loft conversion (building regulation compliant), there is now a fourth bedroom complete with en-suite facilities. The property enjoys a secluded position and includes lawned gardens to the front and rear.
