About the Property

One of the key features we really like about this home is the tremendous feeling of space in the main reception areas and kitchen. As you will see from the floorplan the living areas have been arranged so that they seamlessly connect and lead through to the kitchen breakfast room. Whilst having an open plan feel and superb line of sight, the layout of these rooms allows each area to retain a degree of separation and identity. Ideal for grand scale entertaining or more intimate day-to-day living, the living accommodation has a really sensible and considered design.

Another feature that really stands out about this property is the arrangement of the bedroom accommodation. With three double bedrooms on the ground floor (one currently in use as a home office), the property is undoubtedly ideal for buyers wanting traditional single level living. One of the ground floor bedrooms is ensuite and a further shower room services the other two bedrooms. The first-floor bedroom suite has a private bathroom and considerable storage and, in our view, provides the perfect solution for buyers wanting a property that offers first floor sleeping arrangements with the ability to accommodate ground floor living later in life. For family buyers it equally offers the perfect retreat for purchasers looking for a retreat from the hustle and bustle of family life.

Outside, the gardens have been landscaped to provide patio and seating areas and these are positioned around various lawned areas. The gardens are also well established and are stocked with a variety of mature shrubs and trees. Particularly to the rear, the gardens provide a lovely backdrop for the property. With considerable off-street parking and space for larger vehicles, along with a single garage, this lovely home really does offer a lot and in our opinion, it ticks all the boxes.
