A/5574/NT

A rare opportunity with a modern set up which includes 109 acres of land. The property has been modernised and extended to maximise the location and superb views it enjoys from the location overlooking The Gwendraeth Fach valley below with Cross Hands and the Black Mountains in the distance. The farmhouse has had extensive renovations done with open plan living areas, Bi fold doors to enjoy the views and marble tiled floors, heavy wooden bespoke doors and wrought iron finishes. Attention to detail with flowing accommodation being an envious string to the bow. Various outbuildings make it suitable as a stock farm, equestrian centre or similar. Purpose built dog kennels, loose housing sheds and planning for an additional ancillary residential unit has been granted with work having commenced. An extra block of 70 Acres is available under separate negotiation. A Great convenient location some 4 miles from Llanddarog with A 48 dual carriageway connection to the M4.
