

Situated in the highly desirable 2018 Marlborough Grove development just off Langley road, this two double bedroom apartment is offered to the market in a superb condition throughout with the added benefit of direct access to a garden.

The property features a spacious entrance with two large storage cupboards, an exceptional size 26ft open plan living room/kitchen with ample space for dining furniture. The kitchen features a good range of modern high-gloss fitted units and integrated appliances include oven with gas hob and a washing machine.

The master bedroom stretches 15ft whilst the second bedroom also offers sufficient space for a double bed and furniture. The family bathroom is a modern three-piece suite with shower over bath.

Externally two parking spaces are allocated within a secure gated car park. Communal gardens are accessible directly from French doors in the lounge, where a large lawn offers space for patio furniture.

The property is ideally suited to first time buyers or investors due to the long lease. Alternatively the commuter might find the property's location convenient due to the transport links it has to offer, including Langley station being a 5 minute walk away.
