ABOUT THE PROPERTY

If you've been looking for a character-filled home with a bit of history and plenty of charm, this lovely mid-terraced Duke of Bedford cottage could be just the one.

Downstairs you'll find a cosy lounge that's perfect for relaxing after a long day, and a good-sized kitchen/diner with room for a table – ideal for family meals or catching up with friends over a cuppa.

Upstairs there are two bedrooms, both nicely proportioned, along with a modern shower room.

Outside, there's an easy-to-manage rear garden – great for those who want some outdoor space without too much upkeep. You'll also find a handy brick-built storage area and even an old-school outside WC at the back – full of character and potential!

Set along Wisbech Road in the popular village of Thorney, this charming cottage offers a great mix of period features, practicality, and location. Perfect for first-time buyers, downsizers, or anyone looking for a slice of village life with good links to Peterborough and beyond.

Don't miss this one – cottages like this don't hang around for long
