DESCRIPTION

You are welcomed into the property into a spacious reception room, where exposed wooden beams and a unique round fireplace creates an inviting atmosphere. This room makes for the perfect place for gathering with family and friends. To the left, the kitchen is both practical and full of rustic charm, featuring slate floor tiles, wooden worktops, and a high-end gas/electric Lacanche range cooker. A staircase in the kitchen leads to two of the upstairs bedrooms, adding to the home's quirky, characterful layout.

The kitchen also provides access to the boot room — a useful space for muddy shoes and coats — off of which, you'll also find the downstairs w.c. Neighbouring the boot room, and running along the rear of the property, there is a large larder offering plenty of storage. The spacious sitting room is a cosy haven, with exposed beams and a wood-burning stove, ideal for relaxing on cooler evenings. To the rear, a sunroom offers a tranquil spot to enjoy reading or other hobbies, while a study and small storeroom run along the side of the property, providing practical, tucked-away spaces.

Upstairs, the home has three bedrooms, a large landing, and a family bathroom with three-piece suite. The layout retains its original charm. The upstairs rooms are bright and airy, with lovely views stretching across the fields at the rear of the property, bringing a sense of calm and connection to the surrounding countryside.

OUTSIDE

The gardens, which lie to the front and side of the property, are mainly laid to lawn and bordered by mature hedging, providing privacy and a natural boundary. The outdoor space offers plenty of room for gardening, play, or simply relaxing in the fresh air. To the side of the property, a driveway provides ample off-road parking for several cars. Also found within the garden, there is a pond, two useful sheds, a very large store (currently used for storing logs). There is potential here, subject to the relevant permissions being granted, to erect a garage or workshop. There is also a greenhouse in situ, which was purchased in 2016.

This delightful cottage offers a wonderful blend of period features, flexible living spaces, and peaceful surroundings. With its characterful layout and scope for reconfiguration, it's a home that invites you to put your own stamp on it while enjoying everything that village life and the countryside have to offer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Gas fired central heating. All mains' services are connected. The roof was replaced entirely in 2022, with reclaimed Pantiles, as original.
