A separate modern fitted kitchen & utilities room done to a high specification are also on offer. The house has been made accessible for families of different generations to live together by the addition of a ground floor double bedroom and shower room. The first floor is home to FOUR further double bedrooms, the master of which benefits from an en suite shower room. The traditional family bathroom is also located on this floor.

External space comes in the form of private driveway parking for several cars and an enclosed rear garden.
